

Expert Bargaining.
A good-natured, happy looking Irish woman walked into a Germantown, Philadelphia, store a few days ago, and asked the price of collars, that were displayed in the window. The clerk replied that they were two for a quarter. "How much would that be for one?" she asked.

"Thirteen cents" answered the clerk quickly.

The old woman pondered and pondered, and then with her fingers figured on the sleeve of her worn coat a little while longer. After a great effort she demanded:

"That would make the other collar twelve cents. Just give me that one."

Cured His Mother of Rheumatism.

"My mother has been a sufferer for many years with rheumatism," says W. H. Howard, of Husband, Pa. "At times she was unable to move at all; while at all times walking was painful. I presented her with a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and after a few applications she decided it was the most wonderful pain reliever she had ever tried, in fact, she is never without it now and is at all times able to walk. An occasional application of Pain Balm keeps away the pain that she was formerly troubled with." For sale by L. R. Irwin.

"If you want anything to eat here," she said, "you will have to work for it."

"Madam," replied the weary one who had seen better days, "I couldn't think of taking advantage of you that way. A light lunch will do me now, but work will do me now, but work will increase my appetite so much that you would surely lose more than you can afford."—Chicago Post.

When the Sap Rises.

Weak lungs should be careful. Coughs and colds are dangerous things. One Minute Cough Cure cures coughs and colds and gives strength to the lungs. Mrs. G. E. Lerner, of Marion, Ind., says, "I suffered with a cough until I ran down in weight from 148 to 92 lbs. I tried a number of remedies to no avail until I used One Minute Cough Cure. Four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me entirely of the cough, strengthened my lungs and restored me to my normal weight, health and strength." Sold by L. R. Irwin.

"One week from to-day, Uncle John, I will be a married man. Yes, in seven short days I will be a married man. Yes, in seven short days I will be initiated into the mysteries of matrimony!"

"No mysteries about it, my boy. It is just the plain rule of three."

"Rule of three? Er—what three?"

"Wife, mother-in-law and hired girl."—Kansas City Journal.

A Sure Thing.

It is said that nothing is sure except death and taxes, but that is not altogether true. Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption is a sure cure for all lung and throat troubles. Thousands can testify to that. Mrs. C. B. Van Meter of Shepherdstown, W. Va., says "I had a severe case of Bronchitis and for a year tried everything I heard of but got no relief. One bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery then cured me absolutely." It's intangible for Croup, Whooping Cough, Grip, Pneumonia and Consumption. Try it. It's guaranteed by L. R. Irwin Druggist. Trial bottles free. Reg. s 2's 50c, $1.00.

Not the Same Meaning.

Nervous Old Lady din saloon of steamer Oh, steward, where do I sleep? Steward—What is the number of your berth, matron? Nervous Old Lady—I don't see what that has to do with it, but if you must know it is third. There were a sister and a brother born before me.

A Very Dear Spot.

"After all," remarked the sentimental wife, "home is the dearest spot on earth."

"Yes, verily," rejoined the head of the matrimonial trust as he finished auditing last month's grocery bill.
